Focus on the FUTURE

Eighty-nine years after our founding, we have new owners and a renewed focus on service. We're still a family business, with partners in marriage and now partners in business - Shari and Roger Wilsey - combining their energy and experience. We're still Customer Focused, with even more emphasis on delivering quality customer service and providing practical, economical solutions to your everyday logistical challenges.

"Roger and I bought this company because we like the LME employees and trust in their ability to satisfy our customers. LME's reputation for quality is due in no small part to the hard work by everyone here. We strongly believe in LME's future and in the exciting opportunities that are out there."

- Shari Taylor Wilsey

"It's when there is a problem that the customer finds out whether we can deliver what we promised. We'd better solve their problem fast and to their satisfaction or they won't let us back our trailer up to their dock tomorrow."

- Roger Wilsey

 Background -

Shari Taylor Wilsey, a talented, successful businesswoman and entrepreneur in her own right, brings a fresh perspective and a critical eye for detail and customer service to our company. Roger Wilsey literally grew up in the trucking business. Roger's father owned and operated Midwest icon Indianhead Truck Lines for 65 years. Together, they lead an experienced management team who specialize in building long-term customer relationships.

 Experience -

Shari is an expert at developing customer relationships. As a business owner, she knows how important it is to stay connected with customers. Roger knows LME inside and out - before assuming an ownership role, he was LME's vice president of administration and corporate compliance. Together, Shari and Roger's ownership style is 'hands on' - with a presence and commitment that typifies a strong family-run business.

 Dedication -

Shari and Roger are truly dedicated to satisfying customers and providing employees with the tools they need to get the job done right. As the economy improves, LME will be right there, ready to please even your most demanding customers.

Shari and Roger's goal is to enhance LME's reputation for quality customer service and to let you choose the transportation options that best fit your needs and your budget. More reasons than ever to choose LME!
